Dedication

To the Memory of

CLAUDE WILLIAM CRIPPEN

We, the members of the class of 1954, dedicate this volume of the Aquila to Claude Crippen, who passed away at the age of sixteen.

For the first eight years Claude attended the Irvine Elementary School; then he came to Youngsville High School where he was a member of our class for but one year, until his untimely death on June 27, 1951.

All of us who knew Claude will always remember him as a friend, a good sport, and an all-around person who was full of fun. We were very sad to lose such a wonderful classmate and will always keep and cherish his memory.

The Administration

A man very well fitted for his position is our supervising principal, Mr. Paul R. Getts. Mr. Getts is a graduate of The Pennsylvania State College. He is not seen much around the high school building, but he can always be found in the home economics building. There he and his secretary, Mrs. Spencer, ably carry out the duties entrusted to them.

Our capable junior and senior high principal is Mr. Hubert Sherwood. Mr. Sherwood is a graduate of Edinboro State Teachers College and Columbia University. Although he has only been with us for one year, he has adapted himself very well to his many tasks. With the help of his secretary, Miss Urbanik, every job is completed efficiently.

We value these two men very highly as our principals.

We are at last finished with our school work. For years we struggled with those nemeses called English, History, and Mathematics. Now we are ready to go out in this wide, wild world of ours and make a life for ourselves.

Under the direction of Mrs. Paul, we presented the play, "There Go the Grooms." Many of the audience praised it as the best they've seen in Youngsville.

During the past year, Mr. Borton and Mr. Turchan were our capable guiding hands. We elected the following members as our leaders.

President ..... William Wimer
Vice President ..... Ardelle Johnson
Secretary ..... Carol Forsberg
Treasurer ..... Janet Rodgers

We were a very active group of students under the guidance of Mrs. Rosadell Galmish and Miss Ina Epstein. As our class officers, we elected the following: president, Jack Bailey; vice president, Clarence Benedict; secretary, Janet Jordon; and treasurer, Richard Baker. The above officers presided over an enrollment of sixty-seven members.

We held our first class party in October. It was a wiener roast at Island Park; then we went to the gym where we danced. All enjoyed themselves.

We were well represented in athletics, music, and publications. We had two from our class who were cheerleaders — Norma Inter and Ann Fill.

Some of us sold felt letters this year and also sponsored a dance in November to raise money for the Junior-Senior Prom and Banquet.

We are looking forward to next year when we'll be Seniors.

We were Sophomores this year and were just beginning senior high school. This meant we were finished with our junior high school days and were ready for something different.

At the beginning of this year we had a class of ninety members. Our home room teachers were Mrs. Joyce Paden, Miss Ina Epstein, and Mr. Waide Ingols.

Our class officers were chosen during the first few weeks of school. Our president was William Oehlenschlager; vice president, William Morgan; secretary, Lee Thompson; and treasurer, Jerome Zastawney. We had two assistant treasurers: Richard Sherwood and Melva Johnson.

Many activities were opened to us this year. Two of the girls bestowed honor upon our class by being selected as senior high cheerleaders; they were Nancy Phanco and Debby Engstrom. Many of our boys were on the football and track teams. We also had students in Debate, Aquila, F. H. A., F. F. A., Chorus, and Broadwalk.

We had one hundred and seven pupils that came to rooms thirteen and fourteen on September first from Youngsville and the surrounding townships. We were a little mixed-up for the first few days, but things were soon running smoothly. Many of us joined the leading activities. At our first class meeting we chose John Ahlquist as leader, Fred Highhouse to assist him, Mary Ann Moniak to take in our money, and James Smith to take our notes. Our advisors were Mrs. Roberta Paul, Mr. Warren Carr, and Mr. Charles Bennett.

This year we got off to a great start. We planned a "moonlight hike" for our first class party. There were about twenty-five students present, and everyone reported a good time.

At the beginning of the year, under the guidance of Miss Lorraine Southall, the following officers were elected: Donald Dininny served as president; John McCanna as vice president; Glenn Anderson as secretary; and Robert Matteo as treasurer.

This year many activities were opened to us: Band, Junior Hi-Y, Tri-Hi-Y, Dramatics, Junior Chorus, Gym Club, and Library.

We were under the guidance of Mr. Charles Paul. On the sixteenth of September we elected the following as our class officers: president, Timothy Wise; vice president, Ronald Blackmer; secretary, Thomas Craig; and treasurer, Peggy Sherwood.

Since we were in junior high school, we were able to change classes. During the first few days of school, we had some trouble finding the rooms and getting acquainted with the teachers.

We were glad to welcome six new students from Grand Valley and one transfer student from New Jersey.

We took part in such activities as Junior Hi-Y, Tri-Hi-Y, Junior Choir, and many others. Also, for the first time we were able to participate in such competitive sports as football and basketball.

This year our Aquila Editorial Staff was very busy preparing our 1954 yearbook. For many months we worked, planning for the success of it. The magazine commissions, the number of Aquilas sold to the students, and the returns from individual pictures all helped to determine the cost for this project.

Ina Gustafson took over her duties as editor and Shirley Egbert as assistant editor. Donald Miller and Bruce Crist contributed their photographic ability with Mr. Turchan supervising them. Mr. Christensen added the art work to this year's annual, and Mr. Paul again proved to be a very capable advisor.

We hope you will enjoy this year's Aquila as much as we have enjoyed working to give it to you.

Did you ever think about the work that goes on behind the scenes of the Broadwalk? This year we had a better opportunity to learn the work of the Broadwalk as it met every day except Wednesday. This also helped us to study the work of a newspaper. There were many different kinds of jobs such as writing, typing, assembling, and mimeograph operating. The more skilled senior girls had to do most of the typing.

Ardelle Johnson resumed her duties as editor and continued until the end of December. At that time, Lawrence Peterson and Gay Simpson took over as co-editors, each assuming half of the responsibilities.

The job of the editorial staff, which consisted of sixteen members, was to collect and write the news as they saw it happen around the school.

Miss Epstein and Mr. Borton were the very capable advisors of this well-organized staff.

Broadwalk Sales

First Row—J. Roberts, R. Buerkle, J. Mourer, P. Woodin, M. Kerr, Miss Epstein.
Second Row—J. McCollough, J. Davis, B. Woodin, Y. Stuart, S. Egbert, W. Morgan.
Third Row—J. Cowan, A. Johnson, R. Nelson, B. Hannold, G. Simpson, B. Crist.

The Broadwalk Sales Staff again had a very busy year. This year the paper consisted of one sheet and was published on a weekly basis. The yearly subscription rate of thirty-five cents stayed the same as in former years.

On the days the Broadwalks came out, Peggy Woodin, business manager, divided, counted, and distributed them to the homerooms; then the salesmen made sure that each pupil received his copy.

There was no profit made, as all our money was used for buying mimeograph ink, paper, and stencils. Miss Epstein efficiently guided us.

Aquila Business and Sales

Second Row—W. Wimer, J. Rodgers, L. Wertz, C. Forsberg, C. Benedict, F. Phanco.

"Please bring your money" was the cry all students heard from the salesmen on the Aquila Business and Sales Staff.

The money for the yearbook was divided into four payments, which were collected by the salesmen. There were eleven members on this staff, of which two were business managers. Elizabeth Day acted as business manager and John Radecki as her assistant. The other nine members were the salesmen for each homeroom.

The business managers helped the magazine subscription sale by keeping an accurate account of the money taken in. They also did excellent work in assisting the photographers who visited our school.

Mr. Paul was the efficient leader of this essential group.

Horns! Drums! Saxaphones! Clarinets!

All these added to the confusion that was heard during the fifth period on Tuesdays and Fridays in the auditorium. This noise was made by the thirty-one members of the high school band. Seven of these musicians were new this year, yet they contributed greatly to any success we might have had.

We worked hard on pieces for our own spring concert. Just a few of these were "March of the Slide Trombones," "Three Little Pigs," and "Rifle Regiment."

A football game wouldn't be complete without the spirit of the band members who participated willingly.

One of the important events that was sponsored by the band was the Birthday Social, which was held in the Gym during November. The proceeds were put in our fund toward new uniforms.

Of the thirty-one members, we lost four through graduation. We certainly appreciate their hard work. Also, we recognize and appreciate the many hard efforts Mr. Horn put forth to make our band a success.

Senior Choir

First Row—S. Jewell, M. Shellhouse, H. Ward, R. Withington, J. Thomas, N. Phanco, D. Mayers, K. Radecki, R. Lucia, Mr. Horn.

Sixth Row—J. Mourer, T. Barton, C. Olson, R. Baker, M. Law, J. Anderson, L. Thompson.

Familiar melodious strains were heard drifting out of the auditorium fifth period every Monday. These notes came from the mouths of the fifty-three people who made up the Senior Choir. This group consisted of sophomores, juniors, and seniors.

One of our public appearances was with the Dramatics Club in December, when we presented Christmas scenes with music. This program was greatly enjoyed by all.

We also worked on many very beautiful and original songs. Some were presented to you in the Spring Concert.

An annual event, for which many of us were chosen, was the Spring Festival. Students from different schools of the county joined with us. During the day we practiced together, and in the evening we presented a musical program. Of course, Mr. Horn was our able director.

Junior Choir

First Row—G. Coan, K. Swanson, C. Moronski, E. Fedorchuk, P. Sherwood, Mr. Horn.
Second Row—M. Perrin, P. Enos, G. Perkins, B. Billsborough, G. Locey, V. Britt, M. Clancy.

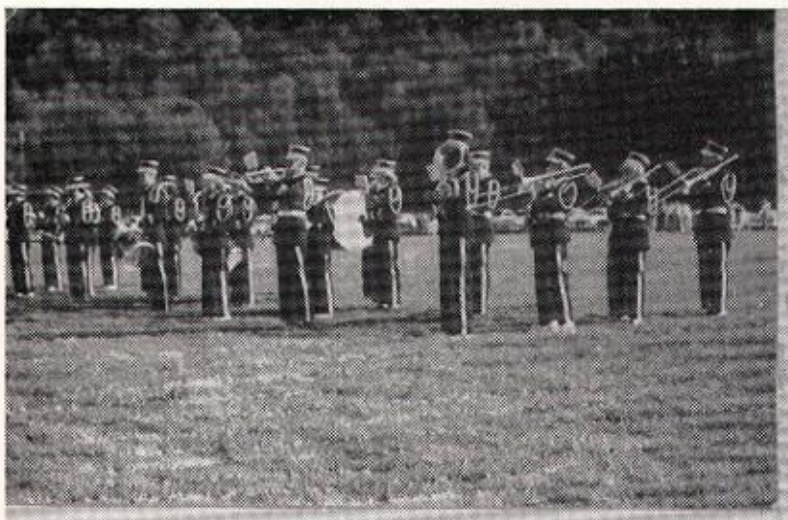
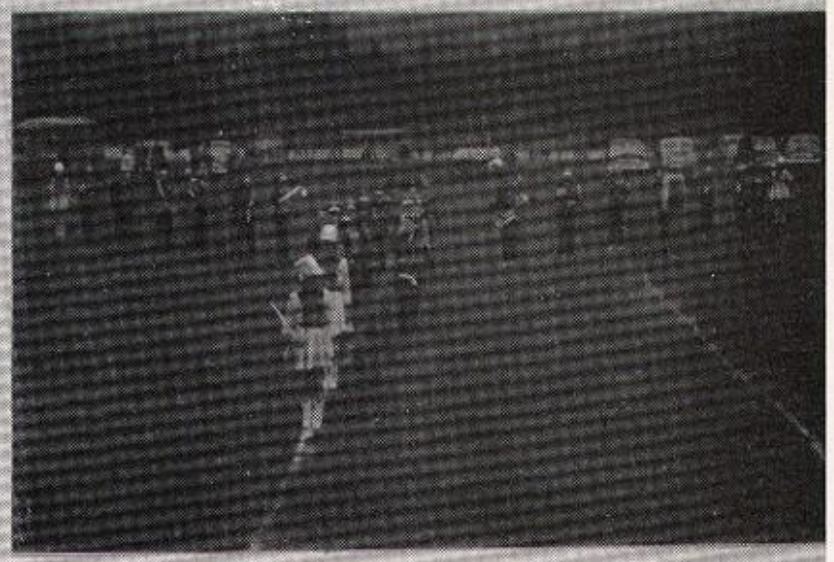
Fifth Row—H. Perkins, J. Dolphin, J. Teconchuk, R. Nelson, A. Bush, R. Hodges, G. Sedlak.

This year we had a Junior Choir of which we were all proud. It was composed of thirty-three members from the seventh, eighth, and ninth grades.

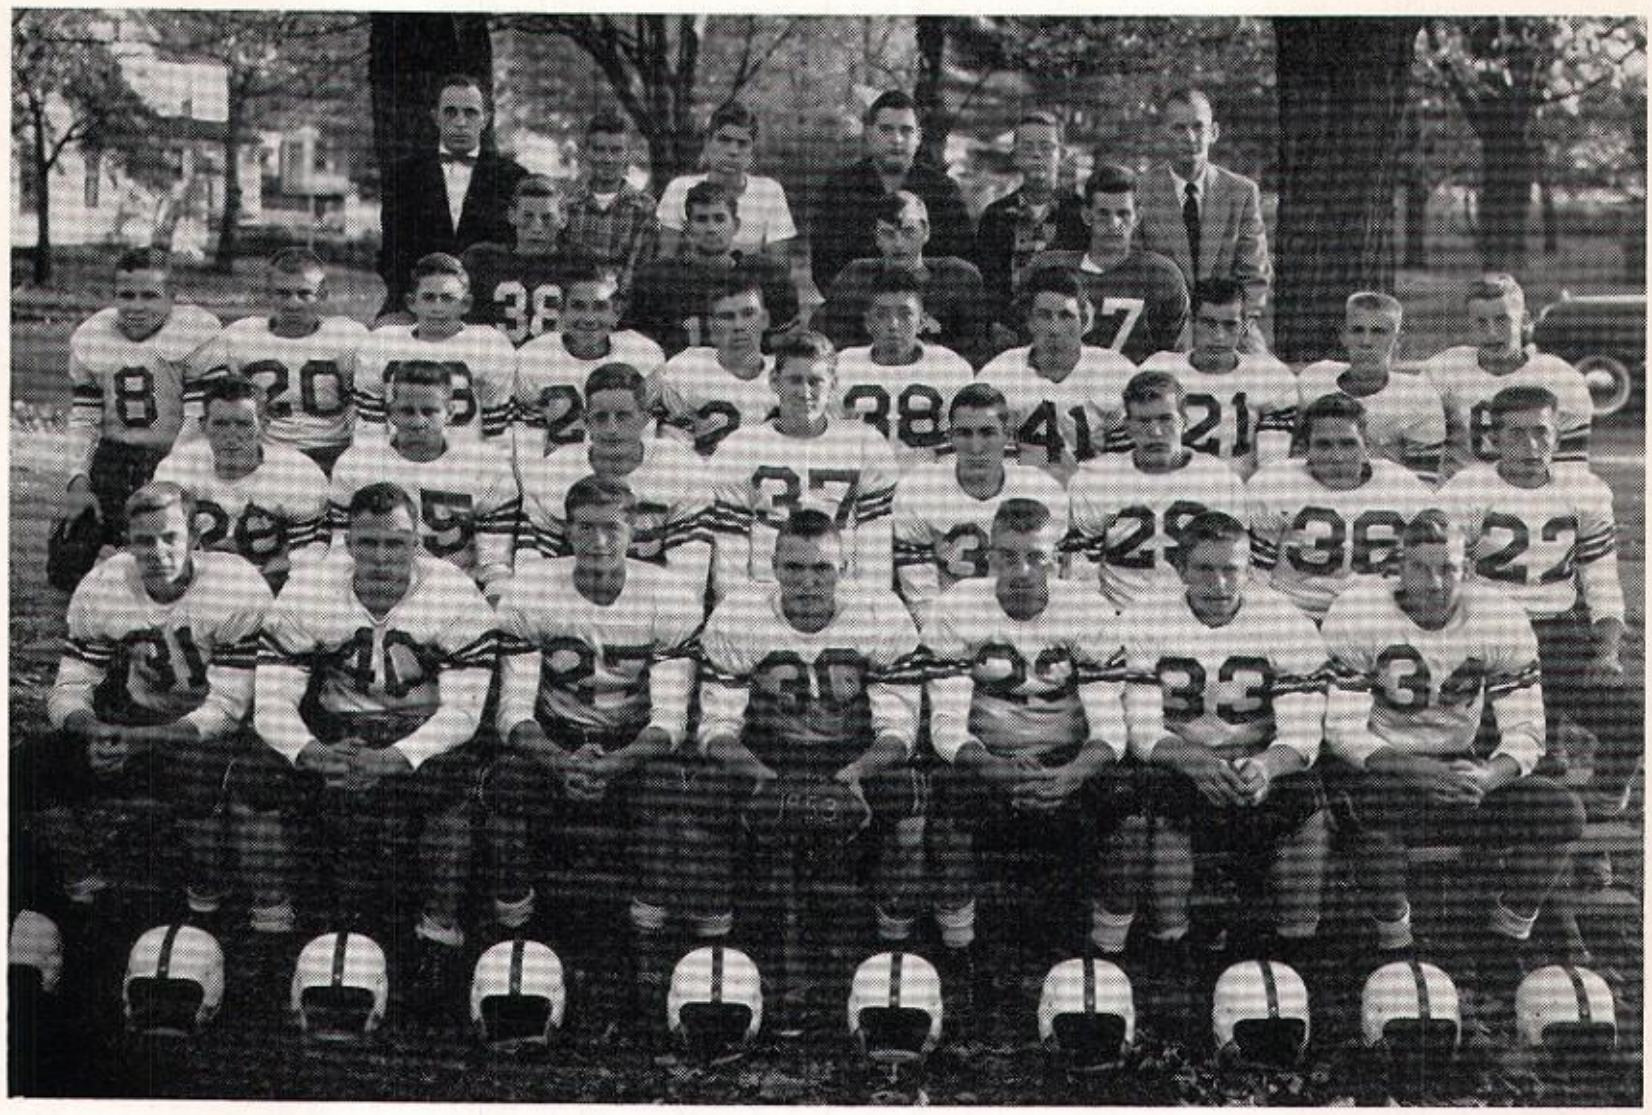
We worked hard, and one of our accomplishments was our singing in the joint Christmas assembly. We sang "Christmas is Coming." We were very busy practicing for the Spring Concert. Some of our many songs were "Old Tare River," "Jim-A-Long Josey," and "Zum Gali-Gali."

One of our burning ambitions was to become a member of the Senior Choir, when we reach the tenth grade. Even though the girls outnumbered the boys, Mr. Horn said we had good harmony. Without our masculine voices, I'm sure we wouldn't have been half as successful.





Varsity and Junior Varsity Football



First Row—R. Litzinger, G. Smith, F. Phanco, N. Meabon, D. Haight, J. Franklin, G. Fitzgerald.

Second Row—R. Woods, D. Warner, W. McChesney, F. Stoudt, J. Kulbacki, J. Bailey, C. Morris, R. Letrent.

Fourth Row—M. Nelson, R. Fehlman, C. Benedict, E. Moronski.

The 1953 football season opened in the middle of August. About forty-five boys showed up for the first meeting. When the Junior Varsity was combined with the Varsity, it raised the number considerably. If the boys' practice sessions had any bearing on their win-loss record, they must have practiced long and hard, because we finished the season with one loss, one tie, and six wins. This was our most successful season in many years. Mr. Kamus was our head coach, and Mr. Carr assisted him.

Our senior lettermen this year were: Richard Wood, Richard Litzinger, Gordon Fitzgerald, George Smith, Frederick Phanco, Charles Morris, Neal Meabon, James Franklin, and Dan Johnson. These boys all contributed greatly to the success of our team. Their loss will be felt next season, but we are sure the boys coming up will continue to keep Youngsville in the win column.

During the last week of September, something new came to Youngsville High. It was during this week that twelve seventh, eighth, and ninth grade boys, under the coaching of Mr. Paul, organized Youngsville's first Junior High Football Team.

During the season the team worked on the fundamentals of football. They scrimmaged a little among themselves and got their bodies into good condition. During this period the team was growing, until, at the end of the season, it numbered sixty boys. These boys came from the Youngsville, Pittsfield, Irvine, and Lottsville School Districts. This large increase in participants was more than Mr. Paul could handle, so Mr. Bennett was enlisted to help him.

Although only twenty-five uniforms were available this year, Mr. Paul expects to uniform everyone next year. He also hopes for a six game schedule with other junior high teams.

Best Wishes

The Youngsville 1953-54 Basketball Team was one of the best our school has ever had. Youngsville's record was sixteen wins and two losses in regular season play. The first team were all lettermen who had played together a number of years. James Spear and Dallas Haight were the forwards, Richard Wood and Neal Meabon were the guards, and Frank Stoudt was the center on this first five. Frederick Phanco and Richard Culver were the number one and two substitutes on the second team, which also consisted of Myron Nelson, Clarence Benedict, and Jack Bailey. Under the able coaching of Mr. Kamus, our varsity won the Upper Allegheny League Championship.

The Youngsville Junior Varsity also did a fine job this year under the coaching of Mr. Paul. None of the boys had much previous experience except what they gained playing Jr. High basketball last year. There were fifteen boys on the squad, all of them sophomores. They ended the season with a nine and nine record.

Under the capable coaching of Mr. Bennett, Youngsville's second junior high basketball team completed a very successful season. With twenty-five candidates out for the team, Mr. Bennett had his hands full handling them. However, at game time they settled down and commenced to win ball game after ball game. Our team's record for this season was ten wins and four losses. The ten victories were all league games. This marks the second year in succession that Youngsville has won the Junior High League Championship.

This year the Y. H. S. Track Team had a successful season. The Youngsville team had six official meets, including the District 10 Meet at Erie and the State Meet at Penn State. Out of our four regular meets, we won two of them.

At the District 10 Meet, we placed sixth out of fourteen Class "A" and "B" schools and first out of five Class "B" schools. Richard Nelson won a District 10 championship for us in the 180-yard low hurdles, and Richard Wood took second place in the 100-yard and the 220-yard dashes. The mile relay team, that was composed of L. McChesney, D. Warner, G. Fitzgerald, and R. Nelson, placed fourth, while Joseph Kulbacki placed fifth in the 880-yard run. At the State Meet, Richard Wood won a medal by placing fourth in the 100-yard dash.

The following boys earned their letters during the 1953 track season: Richard Wood, Richard Nelson, Leland McChesney, Dan Warner, Richard Litzinger, Dallas Haight, Alan McAllister, Joseph Kulbacki, Gordon Fitzgerald, Ronald Letrent, Jack Bailey, and Michael Sedlak. We were under the coaching of Mr. Paul.

This year, for the first time, we set up definate rules to govern the cheering squad. After our new squad was chosen, the old cheers were reorganized, and some new songs and cheers added. In October we sponsored a tag day to raise some money for new uniforms. Miss Southall traveled to all games with us, and Mrs. Paul coached us in working out our motions. Shirley Phanco did a most commendable job as our captain. We want to thank the student body for its fine cooperation in helping us cheer our teams to victory.

The purpose of the Youngsville Athletic Tribunal is to raise money for purchasing senior awards.

To be eligible for a sweater award, a student must have earned two varsity letters in either football, basketball, or track. One of these letters must be earned in his senior year. Y. A. T. members sold license plates with EAGLES inscribed on them. They also sponsored a pie social. Mr. Kamus was our faculty advisor.

"Lights! Action! Curtain!" Usually these words are reminiscent of a play, but to the members of the Dramatics Club they are a call to duty.

The club this year consisted of one hundred and ten students divided into three sections. Our time was spent in working on pantomimes, monologues, and one-act plays. Many times we strained our poor throats and lungs in voice improvement exercises. Often people came in and saw us doing exercises which seemingly belonged in gym class; these were to relax our bodies for pantomime work.

In addition to our regular plays for assemblies and for the P. T. A., we presented two new programs this year — a "Night of One-Acts" and a joint Christmas program with the Music Department, entitled "The Coming of the King." Mrs. Paul efficiently directed us in our activities.

God Bless You "Marion"

This year we joined a national organization called the Future Business Leaders of America. We felt that by joining this organization we would increase our knowledge of business relations in the world today.

Our officers were as follows: president, Janet VanGuilder; vice president, Janet Pierson; secretary, Shirley Jewell; treasurer, Barbara Hannold. The guidance for our activities was supplied by Mr. Ingols.

Yakity-Yakity-Yak! Who could ever make so much noise? The boys would say only girls, and, believe it or not, it was this time. Of course, it was our own organization the Tri-Hi-Y, which held its meetings every Monday and Tuesday.

Because of the large number of seventh, eighth, and ninth grade girls who joined our club, we had to be divided into two groups. Under the leadership of Mrs. Paden, we held our business meetings which sometimes were accompanied by films.

One of our big projects was the writing of letters to children in the orphanage in Warren. We had a lovely Christmas party for them and presented them with gifts.

In December we held a bake sale, which turned out to be a big success. The proceeds went to cover some of our expenses.

The Monday officers were: president, Roberta Buerkle; vice president, Susan Johnson; secretary, Mary Ann Moniak; treasurer, Karen VanDewark; chaplain, Maxine Danielson. The Tuesday officers were: president, Sallie Haley; vice president, Louann Abraham; secretary, Jean Anderson; treasurer, Mary Kerr; chaplain, Kay Samuelson.

The Junior Hi-Y met every Friday under the capable guidance of Mr. Carr. It consisted of seventh, eighth, and ninth grade boys. This organization is sponsored by the Y. M. C. A.

We sometimes enjoyed films during our business meeting. We also had such interesting speakers as Reverend Carl J. Franzen and Gilbert Sanford.

One of our projects was the selling of taffy. Most of us were good salesmen, and we all seemed to enjoy our work.

We chose the following officers to direct us: president, Frank Gruttaria; vice president, Fred McChesney; secretary, Steve Rensma; treasurer, Melvin Freeborough.

This is one of the most important activities in the school. Have you ever stopped to realize that without us the library wouldn't function? "To serve the students courteously" is our motto.

There were twenty-nine of us on the staff. Whenever you entered the library, you would always find a few of us represented. We tried to make the library run smoothly, but we had to have the supervision and help of Miss Henry and the courtesy of you — our fellow students.

There were seven of us in the club. We met every Friday when we worked on our Morris Unit Books. These were to help us understand how to work in the library.

Acknowledgment

At this time, I wish to extend my sincere thanks to everyone who has made this edition of the Aquila possible. To the staff, the salesmen, and all who have helped to finance the yearbook goes my appreciation for their cooperation.

Special credit is due Mr. Paul, faculty advisor, for guiding us so ably in all of the difficult tasks which we had to face.

We have tried to improve the yearbook by adding eight new pages. This meant an added expense and additional work. We feel sure you will enjoy the fruits of our labors.

After many months of hard work, burning of midnight electricity, and smoothing out many rough spots, we are placing the 1954 Aquila in your hands.

About Pennsylvania People

By The Associated Press

Q. Which member of the omedy team, Monteith nd Rand, is from hiladelphia?

A. John Monteith, 31, is rom Horsham, Bucks ounty. He and partner, uzanne Rand, 30, of hicago, avoid the slapstick tyle of humor prevalent mong today's comedians. The rave-winning team ould rather improvise, us- g audience's questions as he basis for comedy skits. They met in Boston and ave worked small clubs nce the early 1970s. To- ay, they perform on such rograms as "The Johnny arson Show" or at the GM Grand in Las Vegas. The duo is presently riting and acting in their rst movie, "Turtle iary," an urbanized ver- on of "Born Free." In eir movie, they try to set o huge sea turtles from e New York Aquarium ee. Let's hope the poor rtles don't end up in ewark Bay!

Q. After a few hit cords, what lies ahead for nnie Boyer?

A. Plenty, if the 28-year- d West Lawn, Berks ounty, songstress' tional tour sponsored by lumbia Records goes as anned. She kicked off her tour Bonnie Boyer Show.

Q. Who's the Underground Railroad "agent" recently honored with a Pennsylvania historical marker?

A. Richard Henderson. Only the third black to be accorded such honors by the state. Next spring, a marker citing his work will be erected by the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission in Meadville.

During the pre-Civil War era, Henderson harbored hundreds of runaway slaves, helping them gain freedom in Canada via the Pennsylvania Underground Railroad.

He settled in Meadville, but operated throughout Crawford and Centre County. Using the "African mystery" of signs, he and other agents and fugitives communicated, according to Dr. Charles Blockson, an author of books on Pennsylvania blacks. Many of these codes, says Blockson, were based on familiar gospel songs.

Q. Have any Pennsylvania trees graced the White House lawn at Christmastime?

A. You bet: A blue spruce from York will be the third live tree to be planted just south of the White House since 1973, the second from Pennsylvania.

The first live tree was a 40-foot tall tree from Shickshinny. It grew on the White House lawn from 1973 until 1977.

York's blue spruce will be decorated this Christmas with white garland and white ornaments and energy-efficient "minilights."
